

NEWS NOTES - MIDLAND

By DAILY DEAN

and it was not long before she added her name to the list of Fox stars.

He Knew Bill.

Bill Montana, thank you, very much, will cut out the Bill and in the future will be known as Jack Montana.

Mildred Marsh Weds.

Mildred Marsh, sister of the more noted Mrs. Marsh, and herself a cinema actress, was married the other day to Ignacio John, a restaurateur, a member of one of the oldest Spanish families in southern California.

They Deny It.

The rumor that Doris May and Wallace MacDonald have been secretly married has broken out again, but is denied by the parties.

Winifred Westover Is It.

Winifred Westover, who for several months devoted her time to showing the Scandinavian how a motion picture actress behaves before the camera, has transplanted her film manners to the Selznick studio, where she will play opposite Conway Tearle in "The Fighter."

William Shakespeare Hart is the author of the next story in which Bill Hart will appear.

Conway Tearle Writes One.

Conway Tearle has written a scenario. He is the author of the picture in which he is working at the Selznick studio. Hobart Henley is directing.

Another Screen Debut.

Jane Albertson, a niece of the justly famous Gertrude, makes her screen debut in her aunt's most recent contribution to the silver sheet, "Noblesse Oblige." Incidentally, this is the first story Gertrude Atherton has written directly for the screen.

Crane Celebrates Golden Wedding. William H. Crane, the veteran actor, and Mrs. Crane, who are now making their home in Los Angeles, celebrated their 50 years of marital bliss with a dinner party at the Hollywood hotel recently. This is at least one event that defies the popular belief that the marriages of professional people aren't of the lasting variety.

His Head Ticked.

Speaking of Charles Chaplin and comrade, in the good old days when a million meant nothing in his young life, he was pleased to work for a paltry thousand a week or so. At the time that his first thousand a week was proffered to him he stuck out for a thousand and twenty-five dollars. "Why?" said the motion picture financier. "We won't quibble over such a small amount, but what difference on earth does $25 make to you?" "Oh," said Chaplin, "I need that to live on."

Jack Pickford May Direct for Nollan.

Jack Pickford, with his mother, returned to the coast last week after the close of the last chapter in the tragic ending of his wife, Olive Thomas. Mr. Pickford plans for his own company will not be launched until the first of the year and he confessed that he might follow Marshall Nollan's suggestion that he fill in his leisure time by turning director and holding the megaphone on a Nollan picture, perhaps "Fetters" with Wesley Barry. This would be a coincidence since not so many years ago, Mr. Pickford says, Famous Players-Lasky almost bought "Fetters" for him, but the plan was dropped because he was considered a bit too grown-up for it.

Estelle Taylor, who has been very much in the limelight recently because of her rise to fame in "White New York Sleeps," a late Fox release, has just returned to New York from a few weeks' vacation, and is at present preparing her wardrobe for her third Fox picture, which is slated to start in a few days. The title of her new men-

Harry Morey, former Vitaphone star, is to appear in a Ralph Ince production, "Kathryn Williams is coming on from California to take a role in the same picture.

Antonio Moreno and Lionel Barrymore started their film careers on the same day at the Glendale studio under a director by the name of Dave Griffith. Both were considered promising young men.
